Southern AgCredit 2021 Emery Skelton Scholarship

Promoting the further education of our youth in Mississippi and Louisiana

In honor of a former longtime Southern AgCredit board member, Mr. Emery Skelton, a $2,500 scholarship will be awarded to one deserving student who attends or is planning to attend Mississippi State University. Applicants may be a graduating high school senior or a current MSU student majoring in agriculture or a related field (e.g., Agriculture, Ag Economics, Ag Business, Business, Marketing, etc.). Preference will be given to a student from the Mississippi Delta region because of Mr. Skelton's close ties to the Delta area. Applicants must not have won a previous Emery Skelton Scholarship.

Scholarship winners will be selected based on school and community involvement, scholastic performance, educational goals and financial needs. Winner will be announced in April 2021.

To be eligible to apply, you must be a child, grandchild or spouse of a current Southern AgCredit borrower or be a borrower yourself.

Selection Criteria

- Scholarship: measured by grades and transcripts (5 points)
- Leadership: measured by positions held in student government, civic and church groups (10 points)
- Extracurricular activities: measured by participation in sports, school and community organizations, as well as work experience (10 points)
- Essay: measured by content and message (25 points)
